Sailor King won handily the third race, while Banister took the place from Alcol with about as much ease. After the race Clayton, applied his time and made a record for the time being.

KANSAS TO PLAY AMES TO-DAY
Last Practice Before the Big Game the Best Field Yet—How They Will Line Up.

LAWRENCE, KAN., Oct. 14.—(Special.) The first big football game of the season on the local grounds will be played to-morrow afternoon when the Kansas team will meet the eleven from Ames college, of Ames, Ia.

The contest will serve to give a line on the comparative strength of the Jayhawks and the Nebraska. Last Saturday Nebraska defeated Ames by a score of 23 to 11, and U. Kansas can do as well there as the Kansas-Nebraska game of November 5.

Ames team will line up as follows: Captain Mosey says: "Kansas will win to-morrow by a close shave. There is no doubt about the fact that the considerable anxiety is felt around training quarters. A realization of the fact that they must show very much improved form to win the game and the practice was, by all odds, the most satisfactory of the season."

Kansas will, it is believed, play a kicking game. In this point Ames is weak and the Jayhawks are strong. The local players have done some wretched fumbling in the line of play, and a great deal of much punting is believed to be the safest.

The Ames team arrived this evening and was met at the station by a cheering crowd of "Rock Chalk" students. "Hill Matteson, Kansas 33, and Harry Heller, captain of the Kansas City Athletics, will be the officials to-morrow."

Princeton played its first game of football last night at the home of the Maryland Athletic Club eleven and won, 24 to 0. Princeton was not in good form.

"Chul" Morris, the Medics' new coach, directed his men in practice yesterday. After putting them through signal exercises he lined up the first and second teams for regular work.

Halfback Hess, of the Kansas team, who has been unable to play in any of the games this season because of a fractured elbow, is able to practice again and will probably be able to rejoin the team soon.
